

In June 2020, the American Institute of Physics', in their peer-reviewed monthly scientific journal Physics of Fluids, they reported the results of a detailed study on the flow physics of respiratory droplets arising from coughing around and through a face mask (<https://aip.scitation.org/doi/10.1063/5.0015044>).

This chart is a visual representation of their findings as to
HOW FAR COUGHS TRAVEL:

(Chart source: pippinherohelpers.com)

